

AVICENNIA CAPITAL RECRUITS SENIOR EXPERTS

Avicennia Capital SdnBhd has recently recruited Kenneth Wong as its chief risk officer and chief actuary.

CEO of Avicennia Capital Alexander Ankel says that the appointment of Wong is in line with their commitment to their stakeholders, subsidiaries, and regulators to be the centre of competence in the insurance industry based in Malaysia.

"We are delighted to attract very senior industry experts like Kenneth to join us at the start of our growth phase," he says.

Wong is an industry veteran with 28 years of senior technical experience. His immediate primary focus in the company is to roll out a consistent and robust group risk management framework for the Avicennia group of companies.

Avicennia Capital currently owns a 49% stake in Sun Life Malaysia Assurance Bhd and Sun Life Malaysia Takaful Bhd. Avicennia Capital also owns a majority stake in AcibademSaglikveHayatSigorta, one of Turkey's top-ranked health insurance services companies.

TG Agrosolutions, market capitalisation totalling RM245.5 million listed on NSX

Wong as chief risk officer and chief actuary of Avicennia Capital