Kenneth Wong

Government investment arm Khazanah Nasional Bhd's insurance holding company Avicennia Capital Sdn Bhd has appointed Kenneth Wong as its chief risk officer and chief actuary, the company said in a statement today.

Wong's key responsibility covers group-wide risk management and supervision. He also oversees audit for Avicennia Capital and its subsidiary companies. His immediate primary focus in the company is to roll out a consistent and robust group risk management framework for the Avicennia group of companies, Avicennia said.

"We are delighted to attract very senior industry experts like Kenneth to join us at the start of our growth phase," says Avicennia Capital chief executive officer Alexander Ankel. "His appointment is in line with our commitment to our stakeholders, subsidiaries, and regulators to be the centre of competence in the insurance industry based in Malaysia."

Wong is an industry veteran with 28 years of senior technical experience. He previously worked in Munich Reinsurance Company and AIA Company Ltd in Singapore. In Malaysia, Wong worked in Maybank Life Assurance, Bank Negara Malaysia, Tokio Marine Life Insurance Malaysia, and United Overseas Bank (Malaysia).

Avicennia Capital currently owns a 49% stake in Sun Life Malaysia Assurance Bhd and Sun Life Malaysia Takaful Bhd. Avicennia Capital also owns a majority stake in Acibadem Saglik ve Hayat Sigorta, one of Turkey's top-ranked health insurance services companies. The company plans to expand its footprint across the Asean, particularly in Indonesia, Thailand, the Philippines, and Singapore through acquisitions or joint-venture investments.
